

📄 Online Form - 2025 Permission to Watch PG Rated Audiovisual Materials

Activity Name:	2025 Permission to Watch PG Rated Audiovisual Materials
Date/Time:	Friday 31 January 2025 9:10am - Friday 19 December 2025 3:10pm (The permission will remain in place for 2025)
Description:	Throughout the school year, students will have the opportunity to view audiovisual materials such as movies, and/or film clips or parts of film clips and television shows that correlate with the school curriculum or to celebrate student success. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• As part of English programming students view, comprehend, and respond to a wide range of texts in different media and technologies including films and movies.</li><li>• To support classroom study in other Key Learning Areas including Mathematics, Science and Technology, Human Society and its Environment, Creative Arts, Personal Development, Health and Physical Education.</li><li>• Entertainment on excursions (eg bus travel, school camp).</li><li>• Designated school reward days and/or unfavourable weather conditions.</li></ul> Many of these audiovisual materials have an Australian rating of PG. The NSW Department of Education stipulates that Parental/Guardian consent is obtained for the showing of PG rated audiovisual materials. All audiovisual materials are previewed prior to use with students. With your permission, your child will be able to view suitable PG rated audiovisual materials under the guidance of a classroom teacher. Please fill in the permission slip below and submit it via School Bytes. Your decision about what your child watches is both supported and respected. If you do have a concern about your child watching any PG rated audiovisual materials, your child can be removed from those lessons and provided with alternative activities.
